

Key Facts		Social and Emotional Skills
Know there are stereotypes about boys and girls <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Know that it is OK not to conform to gender stereotypes<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Know it is good to be yourself• Know that sometimes people get bullied because of difference• Know the difference between right and wrong and the role that choice has to play in this• Know that friends can be different and still be friends<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Know where to get help if being bullied• Know the difference between a one-off incident and bullying		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understand that boys and girls can be similar in lots of ways and that is OK• Understand that boys and girls can be different in lots of ways and that is OK<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Explain how being bullied can make someone feel• Can choose to be kind to someone who is being bullied• Know how to stand up for themselves when they need to• Recognise that they shouldn't judge people because they are different• Understand that everyone's differences make them special and unique
Key Learning:		Prior Learning:	Books to support
In this Puzzle (unit) the class talk about gender stereotypes, that boys and girls can have differences and similarities and that is OK. They talk about children being bullied because they are different, that this shouldn't happen and how to support a classmate who is being bullied. The children talk about feelings associated with bullying and how and where to get help. They talk about similarities and differences and that it is OK for friends to have differences without it affecting their friendship.		Know that people have differences and similarities • Know what bullying means • Know who to tell if they or someone else is being bullied or is feeling unhappy • Know skills to make friendships • Know that people are unique and that it is OK to be different

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Key word	Definition
Unique	Individual, special
Assumptions	Opinions made without facts
Stereotypes	Ideas about someone based on what social group they belong to
Diversity	Differences
Fairness	Everyone gets what they need rather than want
Bullying	Deliberate, repeated mean behaviour