

Year One
Subject: History
Topic – Buckets and Spades

Key Facts	Timeline
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Seaside holidays were mainly for the wealthy in the 1900s Accommodation options were limited in the 1900s, with mainly boarding houses and guesthouses available Entertainment in the 1900s focused on the beach, sea, and promenade walks Attractions in the 1900s included piers, amusement arcades, and funfairs Seaside holidays became more accessible and affordable in the 1960s, with a greater variety of accommodation options and attractions Today, seaside holidays are even more accessible and diverse, with a wide range of accommodation options and entertainment available In the past, people enjoyed penny cones, which were a type of ice cream sold for a penny People also used bathing machines to change into their bathing suits and be taken out into the sea 	 1850s   1900s   1950s   Today   Grace Darling – Lived from 1815 -1842. She was a lighthouse keeper's daughter who famously rescued shipwrecked sailors.
Key Learning:	Prior Learning:	Books for support/ Enrichment Opportunities:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To identify and describe the key features of a seaside holiday in the past and present To understand that people went on holidays to seaside resorts in the past and still do today To compare and contrast seaside holidays in different time periods To develop an awareness of how the seaside resorts have changed over time To understand the importance of the seaside for tourism and the local economy To identify things people did for pleasure and entertainment, such as penny cones and bathing machines 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Change over time Continuity and change Past and present Exploring the seaside as a place for fun and enjoyment. Victorian Era from learning about Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole Chronology of events in other historical topics. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Visit to Fleetwood Museum for Victorian Seaside event.

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Key word	Definition
Accommodation	a place to stay during a holiday
Ancient	This word means very old, from a time long ago.
Attractions	things that are interesting or enjoyable to visit or see
Bathing machines	carts that were used to change into bathing suits and be taken out into the sea
Beaches	areas of sand or pebbles next to the sea
Civilisation	A civilisation is a group of people who have developed a complex society with its own culture, language, and way of life.
Empire	An empire is a large group of territories or countries that are controlled by one government or ruler.
Entertainment	activities that are enjoyable and provide amusement
Exploration	Exploration is the act of traveling to new places in order to discover and learn about them.
History	This word means the study of past events, people, and places.
Holidaymakers	people who go on holiday
Monarch	A monarch is a king or queen who rules a country.
Past	This word refers to things that have already happened, or a time that has already passed.
Penny cones	a type of ice cream that was sold for a penny
Piers	structures built out over the sea, often with entertainment facilities
Promenades	paved walkways next to the sea
Seaside resort	places by the sea where people go on holiday
Timeline	A timeline is a way of showing events in chronological order, with the most recent event at the end and the oldest event at the beginning.
Transport	the means of getting from one place to another