School's policies for the identification and assessment of pupils with SEN.

At Tarleton Holy Trinity Primary School, all children are assessed:

- Early identification is vital and outside agencies can help advise on the provision of intervention strategies.
- The class teacher informs the parents / carers at the earliest opportunity to alert them to concerns and enlist their active help and participation.
- The class teacher and the SENCo assess and monitor the children's progress in line with existing school practices
- The SENCo works closely with parents / carers and teachers to plan an appropriate programme of intervention and support.
- The assessment of children reflects as far as possible their participation in the whole curriculum of the school.
- The class teacher and the SENCo can break down the assessment into smaller steps in order to aid progress and provide detailed and accurate indicators. The SENCo has been trained in the use of PIVATS (Performance indicators for value-added target setting) which are used to assess and inform target setting for pupils of all ages whose performance is outside national expectations.
- When sitting examinations (SATs) children with SEN can be supported 1:1, have timed breaks, be granted additional time subject to meeting set criteria by STA, and sit exams in a quiet setting in a small group to aid concentration.
- The school operates a provision map in place to plan out intervention and support.
- The SEN provision map records the type and duration of the intervention a pupil is receiving. The Lancashire pupil tracker utilised in this school also tracks progress and provides data which monitors pupils receiving the Pupil Premium as well as pupils with SEN.
- Termly pupil progress meetings take place between the Head Teacher and all class teachers to track, monitor and discuss pupils' progress.
- The HT and SENCo discuss the progress of pupils with SEN at least termly and the SENCo reviews the provision map accordingly (e.g. deploying additional adult support and resources).

The school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of pupils with SEN

- Pupils' progress is monitored throughout the school and Pupils with SEN are monitored by an SEN tracking system.
- All children's attainment and progress is assessed and reviewed each term in pupil progress meetings.

- Individual Education Plans (IEPs) are produced termly or half termly depending on individual pupil circumstances.
- All Support Plan targets are discussed and agreed with parents / carers, at parents / carers' evening meetings or in individual meetings; and with children as appropriate.
- Parents / carers of children with EHC plans are invited to annual reviews to discuss their child's progress and future support; they receive copies of all relevant paperwork concerning their child
- Pupils are also asked to make a contribution to the review when and where appropriate.
- The school operates an Open Door Policy
- We have an allocated governor for special educational needs who meets with the SENCo at least annually to report to the governing body.

The school's approach to teaching pupils with SEN

- The curriculum, having recently undergone a review, is well-organised and imaginative, providing effective learning opportunities for all pupils, including those with SEN. It promotes positive behaviour and safety, and the experiences contribute well to the children's achievement and to their moral, spiritual and cultural development.
- When planning and teaching the National Curriculum, all teachers must set suitable learning challenges, respond to pupils' diverse learning needs and overcome potential barriers to learning and assessment.
- All pupils have the opportunity to experience success in learning and achieve as high a standard as possible. Teachers plan suitable learning for pupils with attainments significantly above or below the expected key stage levels
- We believe in:
 - setting high expectations and provide opportunities for all to achieve through Quality First Teaching
 - taking specific action to create effective learning environments, secure pupils' motivation and concentration, provide equality of opportunity, use appropriate assessment and set targets for learning.
 - having due regard to our duties under the Single Equality Act of 2010
- For pupils with particular learning and assessment requirements, teachers support individuals and groups to enable them to participate fully in curriculum and assessment activities.
- The Children and Families Act 2014 places a duty on our school to support children with medical conditions (supporting pupils with medical conditions – April 2014).
- We have individual healthcare plans for children with medical conditions. Where children also have SEN we co-ordinate their SEN needs with their healthcare plans.

Children with SEN

Teachers must:

- take account of the type and extent of a pupil's special educational needs in planning and in assessment
- provide support for communication, language and literacy needs
- plan, where necessary, to develop pupils' understanding through the use of all available senses and experience
- plan to enable children to take full part in learning, physical and practical activities
- help pupils to manage their behaviour, to take part in learning effectively and safely
- help individuals to manage their emotions, particularly trauma and stress, and to take part in learning
- engage the pupil in the learning process

Children with disabilities

We ensure pupils with disabilities are able to participate fully and effectively in the National Curriculum and statutory assessment arrangements. Potential areas of difficulty are identified and addressed at the outset, without the need for disapplication. We make reasonable adjustments under the Single Equality Duties and ensure that pupils with a disability are not treated less favourably than others. The school also has an accessibility plan.

Teachers must:

- plan for enough time for satisfactory completion of tasks
- plan opportunities where needed for the development of skills in practical aspects of the curriculum
- identify aspects of programmes of study and attainment targets that may present specific difficulties for individuals

All classes in our school are single form and children are grouped according to their ability for activities within their class. This allows children to access work at the correct level and to ensure effective teaching and learning. Teachers identify where adult support maybe required. The teaching of phonics is an area where children are grouped according to ability rather than age, within EYFS and KS1. Assessments inform teachers of progress and teachers will move children between groups accordingly.

How the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment

Teachers adapt the curriculum/learning environment in different ways.

Differentiation by: Grouping – small group/1:1/ability/friendship/peer partners/intervention group	Lesson format – thematic units/games, simulations, role-plays, discovery learning	Alternative recording methods – scribing, use of ICT, mind-mapping, photographs
Content of teaching objectives	Pace of the lesson	Teaching style (Visual, Auditory, Kinaesthetic)
Outcome	Materials	Support level
Reward	Location	Learning environment

- Adaptations to the environment are sometimes made for individuals e.g. use of visual timetables and prompts, sloping boards to aid writing, quiet areas with reduced stimuli, seating arrangements.

A display of the school council's photographs informs the other pupils in school who may wish to raise an issue or suggest an idea.

- If the matter remains unresolved then arrange to speak with the SENCo.
- The next stage would be to arrange to meet the Headteacher.
- In the event that the matter is unresolved then the complainant must put their complaint in writing to the Chair of Governors.
